COACHING PASSION

The powerful process of coaching enables the inspiration to ignite change. With the abundance of distractions in modern-day life and its challenges in business, a great business coach will help clarify and, develop, within their clients, a vision and path forward. A business coach is focused on helping you thrive from both a business and personal perspective, and in assisting you optimize the way you consciously interact with other people. I strive to provide that service.

WORK EXPERIENCE

I am an entrepreneur at heart, a business professional with the skills to help you grow and develop a business whether you are the owner, manager or executive. I have successfully held strategic commercial positions on mega-projects such as the Tsing-Ma Bridge in HK, various airports (HK, Dubai, Abu Dhabi, and Oman), metro rail systems in HK and Dubai, hotels and large-scale housing programs in the UK and Middle East. I have been appointed to C-level and director-level positions in government entities and large international corporates and have managed construction, manufacturing and engineering companies, and consultancies in the UK, Middle & Far East. I have also owned various businesses of my own including a national franchise providing aluminium windows, doors, and conservatories through a distributor network in South Africa.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Throughout my 35-year-long career I have provided mentoring and consultant services, I have only recently ventured into business coaching to share my experience and knowledge. I selected the SA Business Coaches approach to business coaching because I have confidence in their structured and strategic processes and know this foundation provides the comprehensive and extensive skills, style and approach to allow me to proactively coach my clients.
